

AIN'T

He was just a little boy
On a week's first day
Wandering home from Bible school
And dawdling on the way.

He scuffed his shoes into the grass;
He even found a caterpillar.
He found a fluffy milkweed pod
And blew out all the "filler."

A bird's nest in a tree overhead
So wisely placed up so high,
Was just another wonder
That caught his eager eye.

A neighbor watched his zig-zag course
And hailed him from the lawn;
Asked him where he'd been that day
And what was going on.

"I've been to Bible School,"
He said and turned a piece of sod.
He picked up a wiggly worm replying,
"I've learned a lot about God."

"M'm, a very fine way," the neighbor said,
"for a boy to spend his time.
If you'll tell me where God is,
I'll give you a brand new dime."

Quick as a flash the answer came!
Nor were his accents faint.
"I'll give you a dollar, Mister,
If you can tell me where God ain't."

Psalm 91: The Angels are watching over you and me.
God Bless.

Groups Update

We're making progress in securing group leaders/co-leaders for our September 13th start-up date. You'll be able to sign up for a group by next Sunday (August 30th).

We're very happy that Karisa Madera has volunteered to be responsible for the children (toddlers-6th grade) during group meetings. We need a couple of folks to help her. If you'd be willing, let me or Karisa know. This means that all of our groups will need to meet at the same time (5:00-7:00 p.m.) unless, of course, you don't have small children in your group.

We'll finish our look at the first chapters of Genesis today. I hope you've been blessed. I know I have, as we've refocused on God's power, wisdom and love for humankind from the very beginning.
