

Let My People Go (6) “Law and Order”

Text: Micah 6:1-8

- Micah 3:8-12
- Exodus 3:7-8
- God backs up his words with _____.
- God’s covenant relationship with Israel is a story of _____ love.
- God wanted Israel to see their _____ in their covenant relationship.
- God demanded that Israel’s _____ measure up to their _____.
- Hebrews 13:15-16
- God calls us to _____ and _____.

For Group Discussion:

1. Describe a church that strikes a healthy balance between “coming together” and being God’s servants in the world. Why do so many seem to be content with “doing church” as the primary evidence of their love for God?
2. Are believers today as blind as Israel in Micah’s day concerning the disparity between worship and service, between our lofty words spoken in church and our practical actions after the last “amen”? If so, how do we change that?
3. What is our most effective tool in combating the growing cynicism and “We don’t need the church or your god” that exists today?

Restoring Friendship.

Reshaping Lives.

Reviving Hope.

“Springs will gush forth in the wilderness and streams will water the desert”
Isaiah 35:6

When we look around us, we see so much need. From a physical needs perspective, so many struggle to make ends meet, to provide for basic family needs; some don’t get those “ends” to join. And it’s not just because we live in a low-income border town; it’s everywhere.

Can Jesus-followers take care of all the need? Perhaps, but that’s a discussion for another time. Can we do more? Absolutely. So why don’t we? Contentment: not so much with what we possess, but with our service to God and humanity, even faced with so much need all around us. We’re happy with what we “do for the Lord,” and we’re pretty sure the Lord should be.

We’re going to be challenged today by Israel’s history of their walk not always measuring up to their talk. Are you up to the challenge? Let’s get ready to receive God’s “word” today.

Glenn
